Mahakumbhabhishekam Steering Committee

Chairman : Dr. S. Krishna Reddy (Board of Trustees)

Dear devotees,

Thank you all for participating in this great event and because of your unconditional support, we were able to make this event a successful and memorable. I personally thank all the steering committee chairs and my Co-chair Dr Naidu for the hard work and dedication. I want to thank all the volunteers and donors who helped us in this event. Also, I like to thank our priests and priests who came from out of town in making this event a grand success.

We still have a lot of work ahead of us. The shilpis are still here and completing the pending work and they will be working till the end of March 2010. We are also considering temple expansion to include Ayyappa and Kanyakaparameshwari shrines. In the newly purchased land Library, Yoga hall and a new Dining room in the lower level and a community hall, class rooms for Balvihar children in the upper level. This will also give about 200 parking space. We need the community's help to accomplish all this. Please support the temple and donate whatever you can to achieve our goals.

Once again thank you all for your support in making Mahakumbhabhishekam a great and memorable event.

Decoration Committee

Chair : Malathi Reddy Co-Chair : Santa Veerlapati

First, I would like to thank my co-chair Santa Veerlapati for all her hard work; this would not have been possible without her help. On behalf of the decoration committee I would also like to thank the volunteers who donated materials or their time to adorning the Balaji entrance and also the women who created the beautiful flower garlands and rangoli art that were seen throughout the temple. Thanks to everyone's time and hard work. The Temple looked beautiful during our MKA celebrations!

Fund Raising Committee

Chair : Dr. Sharad Parikh M.D

As you may all know, I was appointed as the chairman of the fund raising committee for the Maha Kumbhabhishekam event around spring of 2009 .Initially, the target for fund raising was $150000. Then it was raised to $200000 and as we neared the event it was raised to $250000. Indeed there was concern about reaching that target from all of the fund raising committee members. We had a slow start; at times it became frustrating. But, I had excellent support from our committee members.

Fast forward to July 11, 2009—the Fund-Raising dinner. I had prepared very well for the whole presentation in terms of the significance of the event and the need for the money in detail. Of course I had very good help from my committee members.

(in terms of planning and publicizing it and the logistics of projection). About 125+ people attended. I was surprised to see the attention given to my presentation. The pledges started coming in but then they stalled at around $40 thousand.

Then to jump start, I announced a matching campaign and instantly somebody pledged $100,001. It was the most thrilling and humbling experience of my life. By the end of the evening we had raised little over $ 275000. It was a miracle indeed! Any way we got very excited and continued our efforts but now switching to grass roots approach whereby we approached each and every body by making public announcement during events and thru' mail campaigns.

As of October 01, 2009 - the day of Mahakumbhabhishekam we had raised about $400000 total.

Equally important were donations received in kind as well be it in the form of Anna Danam, Flowers for Poojas and Food Provisions supplies that were worth thousands of dollars. I thank all the members of my committee, my wife and my children who have supported my campaign in more than one way. I am deeply honored to be part of this event and I feel fortunate to not only witness this once in a twelve year event but be a part of it. After all this is the least I can do being a Shiva worshipper! Om Tat Sat.

Building Committee

Chair : Jiwan Singla P.E.

Four shilpis arrived from India on May 20th, 2009 to finish important construction work prior to Mahakumbhabhishekam. Repairs and renovations were done on time over gopurams and shrines. Dwarapalakas were installed over the Rajagopuram. Painting work was also completed over the gopurams and inside the temple. Gold coating of kalasas and installation on the top of gopurams was done prior to Kumbhabhishekam except for Venkateswara, Siva and Mahalakshmi gopurams which were done on October 4th. The shilpis worked 12-14 hours a day to complete the necessary construction for the event. Nine Homa kundas were set up.

Dhwajastambham was received from Chennai (by sea) a week before the celebrations. It was installed during Mahakumbhabhishekam celebrations after sanctification by the priests with Vedic chanting. Bali Peetham was also installed in front of Dhwajastambham. It was a memorable sight to see our priests sprinkling holy water and flowers over the shrines on the final day.

We thank the shilpis for their dedication, sincerity and quality of work. The remaining work of installation of Kosta Moorthis was started immediately after Mahakumbhabhishekam.

Reception Committee

Chair: Jothika Manepalli, Co-Chair: Chaya Gopal

“Service to people is service to God” Swami Vivekananda

This is so true of all who put together a spectacular celebration for the 12th anniversary Mahakumbabhishekham of our Hindu Temple of St Louis. The coordinators organized the events taking into consideration the religious, spiritual and cultural needs and basic comforts of all who attended. The reception committee was no exception. The reception committee actively planned and executed all services to please and accommodate the devotees.

1. Information: In this section program brochures and souvenirs were distributed and provided information on the events of each day. This section was managed by Mr. Purush TerKonda and Mrs. Lalitha TerKonda. They were there for all four days from 7:30 am-9pm. They were always courteous, smiling and provided excellent customer service. Several adult and youth volunteers assisted them.

2. Puja and donation Sponsorship: In this section we had information on pujas and homas of the day and devotees were able to the events of their choice. We had cash register and an option to pay by credit card as well. This section was managed by Mr. Raman Shrinivas and Mr. Shankar Devanhalli who were there every day from 7:30 am-9pm. Mr. Shrinivas had the sole responsibility and accountability of the monies collected and diligent in these “Money Matters”. Dr. Gopal Keelara, Dr. Anantha Manepalli were also there every day to help with the set up and closing of this section and made sure that devotees were able to sit for the puja and homas of their choice in a timely manner. Several adult volunteers assisted them. This was the busiest section of our reception center and successfully added a sizable amount to the donations collected during the celebrations.

3. Books and T-shirt Sale: Youth members from Hindu Temple youth organization and Balvihar managed this section under the able supervision of Mrs. Chaya Gopalan. The sales from this section also contributed to the collections during this event.

Youth group volunteers

Reception committee members/volunteers

4. Shoe and coat section: We had shoe racks to accommodate 500 pairs of shoes and coat rack to accommodate 300 jackets. Youth volunteers again assisted people who need help and always kept this section in order.

5. First Aid: We had a fully equipped first aid box to take care of minor injuries and ailments. Dr. Jothika Manepalli was in charge and treated bee stings, minor oil burns, headaches and other.

6. Lost and Found: Every day jackets, purses and small jewelry pieces that were lost and were collected by the owners. We were amazed at the civic sense of our community who turned in lost items at the Lost and found. Dr. Anantha Manepalli was in charge of this section. It was gratifying to return a gold chain and pendent to a devotee who lost it during one of the busiest day. Her joy was immense as this item is her mother's memory and price less for her.

We thank Prasanna Ayer of the Venue committee who provided us the large tent, shoe racks, coat racks, tables and chairs. We thank the food committee for providing us with water, drinks and snacks. Our work was hard but gratifying and we all felt a sense of accomplishment after the event. Working together for this event created a bond, we met new people, made new friends and learned more about our old friends. Thanks to Purush and Lalitha TerKonda, Raman and Radha Shrinivas, Swarna and Shankar Devanhalli, Gopal Keelara, Anantha Manepalli, Ashok and Raziya Mallya, Revathy Nagarajan, Vanitha and Venugopal Talkad, Madhu and Vittal Bhatt, Sumangala and Ramakrishna Rao, Latha and Vishwanatha, Tara Shadaksharappa, Sujatha Manjunath, Kalyani and Subramaniam, Bindi Shah, Deepti Venkatram, Kalpana Bala, Mythili and Chandra Baradwaj and Mami. We had several youth volunteers who are acknowledged in the youth committee. We thank all for dedicating their time and efforts in working in cold and rain.

Prasadam Committee

Chair : Sendil K. Rathinasabapathy

The work started with laddu preparation by volunteers about 3 weeks before the event. Grocery donation was started for Mahakumbhabhishekam, within a month temple received over 3000 lbs of rice varieties, 500 lbs of dal varieties, 15 oil cans, 100 lbs of jaggery and other items. Kitchen received a food processor, rice cooker, over 20 boxes of fruits, over 150 gallons of milk as donation. The work was ahead of schedule due to large number of volunteers turn out. Prasadam was served all four days from noon through night. Last day prasadam was served in the banana leaf. More than 2000 devotees were served on the last day of the event.

Thanks to Sai devotees, Ayyappa devotees, Tamil pooja group, Gujarathi Samaj, Geetha Ramayan Group, Marati Mandal, Telugu association, Mayuri Restaurant, Jain Center, Omkaram, Sangama for their donation and volunteer work.

Thanks to Seema Enterprises, India Palace, Swad, Deep foods, India Bazar, India Kitchen, Priya Restaurant, Gokul for their sweets donation.

Thanks to all the Grocery donors and Prasadam Sponsors. On Diwali day (Oct 17th) temple served annadanam using the donated grocery for 2000 visiting devotees for 10 hours continuously. Once again many thanks to more than 130 volunteers who helped making annadanam for the event.

Venue Committee

Chair : Prasanna Ayer

The Venue Committee was responsible for preparing the Maha Kumbhabhishekam venue and facilitating smooth functioning of the event in coordination with other committees. The committee members worked extensively to ensure that the event was a grand success. Our major activities included, but not limited to the following:

- Work closely with St Louis County Public Works Department , Zoning Department and West County EMS and Fire Protection district to obtain building permits, Fire Marshall safety permits and to complete all inspections; build the temporary structures to appropriate building codes and safety standards, and arrange for safety equipment. Find and install the right tents for the occasion in order to cover the large homa and seating areas to accommodate large number of devotees, suitable for use over homa fires, suitable for use in cold weather and also ensure unobstructed viewing for all devotees
- Arrange seating in the homa area and tables/chairs for dining areas in temple basement and dining tent. Arrange round-the-clock security using St Louis County police officers for the entire event
- Work closely with Operations and Building committees in preparation prior to the event; Prepare temple adjacent land for parking and shuttle service. Build walkway from adjacent land, install solar lighting and decorative lights; Install walkways from temple to dining, reception and homa tents; Install safety fences for all parking areas and walkways

Right: Swamy Chetanananda inaugurating the event and releasing the souvenir "Mandakini" on October 1st 2009

Souvenir Committee

Chair : Dr. Vijayakumar Bhuddiraju

The souvenir of Dwadaha Kumbhabhishekam was named "Mandakini". This name was selected from over 25 names suggested by the committee members. As described in the editorial, the name appropriately fits the occasion. The following individuals have graciously agreed to be members without reservations or demand for name recognition. These members in alphabetical order of their first names are: Ashwin Patel, D.C. Rao, G.V. Naidu, Sateesha, M.K., Shailesh Shah; Shubha Subbarao; Sreenivasan Rajagopalan; Sridharan Sreenivasan; Vijaya Kumar Buddhiraju and Vijaya Lakshmi Buddhiraju. Their work was vital and by no means a small contribution. The excellent photographs by D.C., the relentless work to get the sponsors by Ashwin, and the quick, thorough editorial corrections by Shubha, Vijaya Lakshmi and Sridharan do require a special mention, without reducing the impact and valuable contributions by others. One more person to whom complete freedom was granted by the editors was Ravi shankar Shetkar, who reorganized articles to reduce the cost of printing without compromising the quality. It is very noble of all the other committees to have accepted the magazine with praise rather than pointing to the errors. This posture adopted by the authorities will allow future and probably younger individuals to come forward to produce even better magazines in the coming years. On behalf of the committee members, let me extend our sincere thanks to those who liked the magazine, those who read some of the articles, and in particular to those who have sponsored by giving ads and best wishes and articles ungrudgingly. Special thanks to everyone who contributed articles for publication without which there would not have been a souvenir.

Mahakumbhabhishekam Celebrations

In support of the Fund raising efforts, The Cultural committee, with the support of the Gururaj family and Sangeetha (Society for Promotion of Indian Classical Music in St Louis) arranged a Carnatic Vocal concert by Ms. Anisha Gururaj, Daughter of Madhuri Gururaj and Gururaj Nagarajan on Aug 15, 2009 at the Ethical Society, Clayton, Mo. This full fledged Classical concert was very well attended and the Gururaj family helped raise some funds more towards Maha Kumbabhishekam Celebrations. Anisha was accompanied by Music Maestros for the concert – Delhi P Sunderarajan on Violin and Neyvelli Narayanan on Mridangam – both are well established , renowned artistes from India who have performed for all world leading Indian Classical Musicians. Anirudh Gururaj also accompanied Anisha on the Tabla for some of the devotional music and Bhajans in the second half of the concert. Anisha has been learning Carnatic Classical and Western Classical music for last 12 years and in St Louis, Vidya Anand is her Guru for Carnatic Music. She also is a regular as part of the Sampradaya Series at Cleveland Thyagaraja Festival and has performed at Cleveland, Chennai and Thiruvayaru, the Birth Place for Saint Thyagaraja in India.

Anisha Gururaj in concert at Ethical Society – Aug 15, 2009 & Guru Induvadana in dance recital at MGC – Oct 4, 2009

During the Maha Kumbabhishekam celebrations, the Cultural committee arranged following programs:

October 2, 2009 (Friday) Classical Music Vocal concert by Mrs. Vijayalakshmi Venugopal, accompanied by Maheetha Bharadwaj on Keyboard. This was a one hour concert at the Mahatma Gandhi Center and was well received by the Devotees.

October 3, 2009 (Saturday)- Devotional Bhajans – This was performed by ‘The Geeta Ramayan’ Group lead by Puran Luthra and Dewan Prashad and group; ‘The Sai Group’ – lead by Indrani and Sunder Rangachari and Group, and ‘The Ayyappa Group’ – lead by Sumanth and Raja Rajasekhar and group.

October 4, 2009 (Sunday) – Bharatanatyam Dance Recital by Guru Induvadana
Guru Induvadana is a Leading exponent of Bharatanatyam. She is the daughter and disciple of Legendary Bharatanatyam dancer Guru Padmashri Shri Adyar K.

Lakshman.. She follows the Kalakshetra style of Bharatanatyam, characterized by traditional purity, grace, vigor and Nattuvangam. Guru Induvadana performed a 90 minute Dance recital Bharathanatyam style at The Mahatma Gandhi Center as part of the Maha Kumbhabhishekam celebrations. She was supported by Maheetha Bharadwaj in the Dance Recital, who also is a student of Guru Adyar Lakshman.

Publication Committee

Chair : Dr. G. V. Naidu

Special communications were sent to the members stressing the significance of Mahakumbhabhishekam, Pooja details and sponsorship information. Advertisements were published in 'India Post and 'Hi India' magazines. Local newspapers and media channels were informed.

Dr. Naidu, Dr. Krishna Reddy, Gov.Jay Nixon and Mrs. Nixon. County Executive Charley Dooley

We were fortunate that Governor Jay Nixon and his wife as well as County Executive, Charley Dooley, participated in the event on October 3rd evening. They were received with traditional Indian welcome and duly honored with special shawls and memento. County Executive also proclaimed a special day recognizing the temple's special event. Many members of Interfaith Organization of St. Louis, lawyers who helped the temple in the past and Insurance agents etc. were invited . They were provided with a special tour of the temple and dinner.

It was a satisfying experience and all the members of the committee need to be thanked for this.

Pooja Committee

Chair : Dr. Ayyagari Rao Co-chair : Dr. Venkar Dharmavarapu

Mahakumabhishekam is a great event which every one of us witnessed. If you see Lord Venkateswara on any given day now after the Kumbhabhishekam it looks like more vitalized more younger and more powerful than before. The same with Laxmi ji also. When I first heard the word revitalizing the Gods I thought what it will be. But now I know exactly what it is after seeing the Balaji after the Mahakumbhabhishekam.

Second most import thing that adds to the temple is Dwajasthambam. Many devotees participated in the erection of the Dwajasthambam. Dwajasthambham was utilized by litting the Jyothis all through Karthika masam and doing pradshana around it. By next year Karthika masa, we will be more organized and we are going to perform a special pooja on Poornima day at the Dwajasthambam.

All the devotees also participated and really enjoyed what we want, poojas and homas and got the blessing of the God. In this occasion to thank again all the volunteers who helped to make this event a great success. One more time I have to stress the importance of volunteers without which any event will be successful. It is our responsibility to praise all the Priests who did a great job.

Transportation Committee

Chair : Visweswara Rao

Transportation committee made transportation arrangements for the devotees and the volunteers for all the 4 days of Maha Kumbhabhishekam celebrations. Committee made parking arrangements at the Temple premises, new parking lot adjacent to Temple and at Queeny Park. Arranged shuttle buses from Queeny park, park rangers at Queeny park, County police for traffic control and Security. As committee members, Trujakar Rao Veeramachaneni, Chandrasekhar Reddy Gummi and Visweswara Rao Kaza worked with the venue committee, food committee, police officers, park rangers, bus company management and drivers in providing great service to all our devotees.

One shuttle bus was arranged to transport devotees to and from Queeny Park on Thursday evening and Friday morning hours. Later two buses were arranged in each shift on Friday afternoon, Saturday and Sunday. To accommodate the peak hour traffic during lunch hours on Saturday and Sunday, four buses were arranged simultaneously.

Committee made arrangements to check frequently with Park rangers, Police and Bus drivers, if they need anything or any issue to resolve. Park rangers and police officers did an excellent job in directing devotees and bus drivers continuously moved devotees to and from Queeny park with very little or no wait times. Bus drivers have been very flexible and stayed few extra hours especially on Sunday and worked with us in keeping the wait time to a minimum.

It was estimated that more than 1000 devotees made use of the transportation arrangements on Sunday morning hours alone and overall people were happy with the transport arrangements during Maha Kumbhabhishekam celebrations. Committee members thank devotees, all volunteers, park rangers, bus drivers and police officers for their support and cooperation in making the event a grand success.

Audio & Visual Committee

Chair : Puran Luthra

We provided support and managed the sound system, coordinated with photographers and videographers, arranged lighting system and Lights for the Parking lots. Pictures taken during this event have been posted on the temple web site. It will take some editing before DVDs could be made available from the video taken during this event. Focus lighting and landscape lighting installed during this occasion make our temple a scenic view for night time photography.

Volunteer's appreciation dinner

Volunteers appreciation dinner was hosted by temple on November 1st 2009. All the volunteers who worked for the kumbhabhishekam were invited. More than 270 volunteers attended. Thanks to Priya Restaurant who donated food for all the event. Steering committee chair Dr. Krishna Reddy started the event by welcome address and every committee chair persons were called on the stage to say thanks to the volunteers. All the priests are honored by a momento.

Volunteers listening to the thank you notes.
